CHALLENGE of the STALLIONS

Five years in the making, Cloud's saga continues in this intimate and grand adventure...daring thefts, surprising births and heartbreaking death...sure to captivate audiences nationwide.

In 1995 a wild horse foal tottered out of the trees with his family and Ginger Kathrens was there to film it. The Emmy-award winning filmmaker has followed the pale foal she named Cloud ever since.

The only continuing documentation of a wild animal in our hemisphere, compared to Jane Goodall's groundbreaking work with the chimpanzees in Africa.

Cloud: Challenge of the Stallions companion book coming in 2009.
